Bouquets, Baskets, Cut Flowers and Choice Plants. Gardens laid out and kept in order by the day, month or year.

NEWPORT EXOTIC GARDEN.

WHERE can I find it? is sometimes asked by strangers, but never by old visitors.

Now is the time to secure your bedding plants. We never before had such a quantity and never such fine plants as this season, consisting of all the new and rare plants. All we desire, is to come and look and see for yourselves. Roses, Dracenas, Centaurias, Geraniums of all sorts, Carnations, Coleous, &c., all of these by the hundred or thousand. Hundreds of other varieties of bedding and foliage plants, all at low rates. Baskets, Stands, Vases, Jardinieres. A fine lot of Ferns, Begonias, Caladiums, Palms, Euphorbias, Camellias and Aralias, Rose Buds by the hundred, and everything pertaining to a first-class Horticultural Establishment. ☞All orders received this season for Bouquets, Baskets, Cut Flowers, and decorations for parties and weddings, received at the garden, as we have vacated our store on Bellevue av., to avoid exhorbitant rent. Those of various sorts to be found in addition to the above. Galvin & Geraghty, Dearborn and Spring streets, Newport, R. I. my5

"TRUTH is MIGHTY and WILL PREVAIL."

Sworn Statement

—OF A—

BOSTON POLICE OFFICER

H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—From exposure I took sick about nine years ago with Rheumatic Fever, from which I suffered about four months. When I recovered from the fever I found myself suffering with pain in my side and constipation, which brought on the piles. I consulted a physician, and paid him over $300 for attending me, and all the while I was gradually growing worse. Then one physician after another was employed, until seven of the best physicians of Boston had taken my case in hand.

On consultation between several of the leading physicians, they concluded my complaint was asthma and general debility. I had great difficulty in breathing, and an inhaler was required to afford me breath. Through the treatment of one physician I took from 75 to 100 boxes of calomel pills, and faithfully tried all the medicine that each physician described. From my long sickness, and the vast amount of medicine used to overcome the great pain, my kidneys became badly affected, and I suffered excruciating pain in the small of my back, with great difficulty in passing my urine.

One physician said I was deceased all through my system, and he regretted that he could give me no hope for health. My suffering from indigestion was so great that it was impossible to keep any solid food on my stomach, and the whole nature of my food was broth from oatmeal.

I also took a prescription from a celebrated English physician, who said my trouble was Bronchitis and Dyspepsia. I took 18 bottles of medicine especially prepared for Dyspepsia, and I have used a great deal of medicine from apothecaries' prescription. I have taken Sarsaparilla until you could count the bottles by the dozen, and indeed I have given nearly all the popular advertised medicine a fair trial. I had a dreadful cough, and did not average over 2 hours' sleep a night for 8 years.

A brother policeman urged me to try Vegetine, but for a long time I refused, having got completely discouraged from taking so much medicine without any benefit; however, after urgent persuasion I concluded to try it, and before I had used one bottle I could eat and hold on my stomach a beefsteak, a thing I had not been able to do before for years; indeed, I obtained more substantial benefit from the first bottle of Vegetine than from all other medicines which I had taken. I kept on improving, and kept on using the Vegetine, until I was perfectly cured and able to do duty all day, eat and digest my food, slept well at night, and I am 40 pounds heavier than I ever was before in my life, and am, as I think, a living contradiction of the prophecies of the most learned medical talent of New England, for with all of their combined wisdom they could not accomplish so much as that simple vegetable medicine called Vegetine, to which I am indebted for health, life, and happiness.

EUGENE E. SULLIVAN,
357 Athens street, Police Station 4.

SUFFOLK SS., BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 22d, 1875.

Then personally appeared the above named Eugene E. Sullivan, and made oath that the foregoing statement is true, before me. HOSEA B. HOWEN, Justice of the Peace.

FURTHER PROOF.

FACTS WILL TELL

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

Dear Sir—Allow me to say a word in favor of VEGETINE. During the past year I have suffered from a complication of diseases. I laid in bed from the 3d of November until the middle of the following June, and on an average did not sit up two hours a week; I had eight of the best physicians in the state, but got no help, but constantly grew worse. They agreed that I had heart disease, phthisis, pyaemia and kidney complaint, and could never be any better. I was reduced in weight 50 pounds, which is much for I am naturally thin.

In June, finding I was falling under the treatment of the physicians, I commenced the use of VEGETINE, through the earnest persuasion of friends, and I am happy to state, with good results. I have gained ten pounds in weight, and can sit up all day, walk half a mile and ride six.

I am greatly encouraged, and shall continue using the VEGETINE if I can get it. I am a poor man, but for the truth of this statement I refer to any man in Gottstown or vicinity. Yours, very thankfully,

August 1, 1875. A. J. BURBECK, Gottstown, N. H.

GENERAL NEWS.

FROM NEW YORK.

THE SUSPENSION OF DANIEL DREW.

NEW YORK, March 13.

Mr. Alvin Bent, counsel for Daniel Drew, who failed on Saturday, says the latter was a voluntary petitioner in bankruptcy, and the case was referred to Register J. T. Williams, and an adjudication took place this morning at Mr. Williams's office. Mr. Drew is liable, as trustee for four grandchildren to about the sum of $500,000, which is secured by $920,000 at par value of stocks and bonds; he is also indebted to the same children in the sum of from $225,000 to $250,000, which is secured by mortgage on his house at the south-west corner of Union Square and Seventeenth St. He is liable as a partner of King & Co., brokers, in the sum of about $300,000, and this sum is secured by mortgages and real estate in the hands of David Dows, trustee, and certain bonds and property in the hands of Wm. L. Scott, assignee of King, Cox & Co. These securities in the hands of Dows & Scott are estimated to be of value exceeding the amount of his debt. He is liable upon an endorsement and note of the Drew Theological Seminary at Madison, N. J., in the sum of $250,000, and also on an endorsement note to the Seminary at Middletown, Conn., in the sum of $100,000. These two notes are unsecured. His other unsecured liabilities amount to between $100,000 and $200,000. His total unsecured liabilities amount to about half a million of dollars; total amount of all liabilities secured and unsecured being between $1,500,000 and $1,600,000. It is supposed that his failure is due to the shrinkage in stocks.

Transfer of Real Estate Belonging to Daniel Drew

The transfer for a nominal amount of Daniel Drew's property at the southwest corner of Union place and East 17th street, and of the property on East 17th street to William H. Drew was recorded on Saturday. The same property was transferred on the same day by William H. Drew and wife to Roxana Drew.

FROM WASHINGTON.

STATE RIGHTS AND ANTI-SECESSION RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED.

WASHINGTON, March 13.

The attempt of the opposing sides of the House to put each other on record on the question of state rights and secession was essentially a failure, unless it is deemed a successful stroke to get the Southern Democrats to say by vote what they have not hesitated to say in every other way, that they do not believe secession was treason. The Northern Democrats could not say that, of course, and did not vote at all, justifying themselves on the ground that they could not subscribe to what was true in the resolutions without subscribing also to a good deal of untruth mixed up with the rest. On the other hand, the Republicans refused to vote for Cox's set of resolutions because, while they declared in effect that secession would be wrong now, they tacitly admitted that it was not wrong when it was done. It is noticeable that one member [Mr. Pierce of Massachusetts] voted for both sets of resolutions. On the whole, it is generally conceded that there is little profit in trying to make one political party say what the other wants it to say.

THE INDIAN BUREAU.

The House Indian affairs committee held a long session today on the question of the transfer of the Indian bureau to the War Department. A vote was finally taken on reporting favorably to the House the bill recently reported to the committee by the sub-committee on the subject, and the result was as follows: Affirmative—Scales, Boone, Sparks, Hooker, Morgan; negative—Wilshire, Saelye, Page, Van Vorhes, Tufts. The other member of the committee—Lane—was absent, but, as he is known to be for the bill, it was agreed to report it favorably. The minority of the committee will present a report, to be written by Mr. Van Vorhes, opposing the transfer to the War Department, and recommending the establishment of a department of Indian affairs.

PENDLETON'S CASE.

General Boynton returned from Cincinnati this evening and will appear before the committee on war expenditures, though he has not yet been subpœnaed. His testimony will bear not upon Pendleton particularly, but on Clymer. The point is that Clymer had just as much information against Pendleton as against Belknap, yet neglected to act against Pendleton, and this point Boynton proposes to make good.

CLYMER'S COMMITTEE.

Mr. Clymer claims that his committee is now in possession of evidence enough to convict Belknap without Marsh's testimony, but he declines to give a hint of what it is. If this is true, one of the objections to placing all the evidence where it can be used to procure an indictment of the late Secretary is removed.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE MISSOURI TORNADO.

Summary of the Damage Done.

QUINCY, Ill., March. 13.

The Whig's report gives the following summary of the results of the late storm in Missouri: Seven persons killed, seventeen injured, three or four dangerously, thirty houses blown down, and immense damage done to orchards and timber. It is estimated that in Monroe and Ralls counties, 1000 miles of fencing is prostrated. Five miles north of Monroe, at the time of the hurricane, a terrific storm passed over, leaving the ground covered with eight inches of hail.

RESUMPTION OF COAL MINING.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., March 13.

This morning two of the Reading Coal Company's collieries resumed work, giving employment to a large number of men.

Preparations are in progress for a general resumption next week. The railroads have already begun the distribution of cars to the various mines, and business shows signs of improvement.

THE IMPEACHMENT OF THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, Miss., March 13.

The senate by a vote of 32 to 4, found Lieut. Gov. Davis guilty as charged in the articles of impeachment, one colored and five white Republican senators voting in the affirmative and four colored in the negative. The finding will be formally announced Wednesday.

THE NEW JERSEY DEFAULTING STATE TREASURER SENTENCED.

TRENTON, March 13.

Josephus Scoy, Jr., the defaulting ex-state treasurer, was this morning sentenced to confinement in the state prison for 3 years, and until the costs of the prosecution are paid. He wept bitterly on hearing the sentence. He is 60 years old.

ARRIVAL OF SPANISH TROOPS IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.

The company of Spanish engineers who are to guard the Spanish buildings at the centennial grounds, arrived in this city this morning. They were met at the depot by the State Fencibles by whom they were escorted through the principal streets. The Spanish and American colors were liberally displayed throughout the city, and the route as the procession was crowded with spectators.

LOCOMOTIVE BOILER EXPLOSION IN INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

An Engineer Instantly Killed and a Portion of the Union Depot Demolished.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 13.

Engine No. 23, on the Indianapolis, Burlington and Western railroad, exploded in the west end of the Union depot at 12.20 this morning. Engineer Moore, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis railroad, was instantly killed. The west end of the depot is partially demolished, and it is possible that others may be found in the ruins dead.

DARING ROBBERY AT FARMER, N. J.

Thirty Thousand Dollars Secured by the Thieves.

NEW YORK, March 13.

Five masked men entered the house of James Crosby, a wealthy farmer living on the Dellytown road, near Farmer Station, on the Northern New Jersey Railroad, early yesterday morning and took off $20,000 worth of United States bonds and $10,000 worth of silverware and jewelry. The robbers intimidated the family with revolvers and beat Crosby until he showed them where his valuables were, with the key of his safe. After the robbery they took Crosby's horse and buggy and drove away with their plunder.

THE PACIFIC SLOPE.

Suit Against the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.

Henry Hart, former agent of the Pacific Mail Company in Japan and China, has commenced suit against the company for $125,000, which he claims is due to him as commission on sales of steamers to the Japanese government effected by him. Attachments have been made out on all the steamers of the company here, but service has been deferred till today on account of a telegram from Jay Gould asking for a delay. Hart proposes to libel the China and Australian steamer, to sail this month, unless the Company obtain bonds, to secure the payment of the claim.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

The Preparations to Repress Disorder in Manchester.

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 13.

This afternoon's Mirror publishes a communication from Governor Cheney, addressed to the politicians for military, in which he says: "Should the civil authorities require aid, I am prepared to act promptly in giving them every needed facility."

Mayor Gay also publishes a proclamation setting forth that every voter shall be protected, etc., and calling upon all citizens to aid in preserving good order, etc.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Speculations on the Result of the Election,—Confidence on both Sides.

CONCORD, N. H., March 13.

The work of the campaign closes today, and tomorrow the people of New Hampshire will record their political verdict. The canvass has been conducted with great energy on both sides, and both parties claim to be confident of victory. Undoubtedly the aggregate vote will be very large, and in former years the Republicans have profited more than their opponents by a full vote. My former predictions remain unchanged,—viz, that the Republicans will re-elect Governor Cheney by popular vote, and that they will also secure the house of representatives by a fair working majority. The Democrats are making desperate efforts to secure the senate, so that their gerrymandering of 1874 may not be disturbed, but indications decidedly favor the Republicans in that direction. Gen. Natt Head, in district No. 2, and the Hon. George F. Todd, in district No. 4, the two gentlemen who were deprived of their seats last year by a Democratic governor, will probably both be elected; and if the premeditated Democratic frauds in Manchester are even prevented in part, the Republican candidate for the senate in that district, Major James F. Briggs will unquestionably be elected. The Republicans confidently claim seven of the twelve senators, but the Democrats say that by no possibility can they (the democrats) get less than six, while they may possibly secure seven.

THE BURNING OF THE NORWICH ALMSHOUSE ON SUNDAY.

Fourteen Persons Believed to Have Perished.

NORWICH, CONN., March 13.

It is now believed that fourteen persons were burned in the almshouse on Sunday. Most of them were old people from 60 to 70 years of age. Seven bodies were taken from the ruins today, burned to a cinder and unrecognizable. Five inmates were injured jumping from the windows, two of them fatally.

SUNDRIES.

The people in the country have been suffering too much from the raids of regularly organized gangs of professional politicians. At least one of the candidates who recently returned to town from a visit among his rural friends think so. "Are you running well out there?" we inquired. "You bet. One of the most influential men in the settlement set four dogs on me."—[San Antonio Herald.

It was a mean man who got on a North Side (Chicago) car and tendered the conductor four cents for a fare. Not wishing to stop the car to eject the fellow, the honest and generous conductor made up his mind to take it, and drawing his punch to operate in "the presence of the passenjar," was astonished to hear him exclaim in excited tones, "Hold on, don't shoot; here's the other cent.

"Papa, what's a safe?" "A safe, my child, is a charitable institution in which benevolent old people and orphans lay up their money for the use of sickly burglars in paying hotel bills at Saratoga!" "What's a cashier?" "A cashier, my child, is a signboard established by suitable directors to point out the way into the safe!" "What's a detective?" "He's a burglar's brother-in-law, and always hounds with rich relatives."—[Albany Express.

The Chicago Times says that "Henry V." is the first V. the people of Louisville have seen for a long time.—[Boston Advertiser. This undoubtedly does seem strange to outsiders; but here, where we all have wealth, and a man who presents anything less than a fifty-dollar bill is instantly frowned down and scornfully told to go to Chicago, the lack of V.'s is something that we cannot consistently stoop to remark.—[Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Rev. Dr. Lorimer told his congregation a good story on Sunday evening. While in Kentucky he was invited to perform a marriage ceremony, and rode ten or twelve miles through mud and rain to unite the contracting parties. At the conclusion of the ceremony the mother of the bride offered Dr. Lorimer a filled wine-glass, which he declined, and said: "You ought to be ashamed of yourself, madam, for offering these young people that which may ultimately work their ruin." The woman placing her arms akimbo, said: "Look h'ar, Mr. Preacher, you kim to marry this yar couple. You've married this yar couple. Now git."—[Boston Adv.

He was telling her of Belknap's disgrace, and casually remarked that there was a woman at the bottom of it, as there always was in the troubles of men. But after he had crawled out from under the bed and apologized, he gathered the children around him and told them that a woman was a holy and beautiful thing. So it is that trifles change our views of life. A flat-iron—aye, even an inexpensive rolling pin—may be the humble instrument to teach a man that the hay loft is a good enough place for him to sleep in.

The other night a merchant prince attended a church meeting, and made an eloquent speech. As is often the habit of men accustomed to lay down the law, he emphasized each sentence or important word by tapping with his knuckles on the table, which moved a young man not as yet a merchant prince to remark audibly, at one of the orator's most impassioned flights: "Cash!" The effect was electrical. But that merchant prince says that if they are so smart and light-hearted, then they had better lift that church debt themselves, and buy the new organ without any of his money—that's all.—[Alta-Californian.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1876.

THE DAY.

The Washington Tribune has stopped publication, having sunk in a few months more than $10,000.

The Mississippi Senate has convicted Lieutenant-Governor Davis of high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

Pooy, the defaulting ex-state treasurer of New Jersey, was yesterday sentenced to three years in the state prison.

A battle between the Egyptians and the Abyssinians is reported which resulted in the defeat of the latter with a loss of 5000 men.

The liabilities of Daniel Drew are about a million and a half, and it is believed that the assets will be nearly enough to cover them.

Representative Clymer now claims that the war expenditures committee has sufficient evidence to convict Belknap without Marsh's testimony.

The House Indian affairs committee will report favorably on the bill for transferring the control of the Indian bureau from the Interior to the War Department.

Masked robbers entered the house of a wealthy farmer near Farmer station, New Jersey, on Sunday morning, and stole $30,000 worth of property in bonds, silver ware and jewelry.

The Republicans were successful in the municipal elections at Bangor, Belfast, Augusta and Camden, Me., yesterday, and Biddeford made a gain of 119 votes on the election of last year.

A telegram from Pesth says the waters show no sign of subsiding and the distress is increasing. A large dam has burst and 50,000 additional acres on which are several villages, are inundated.

The United States Senate discussed the bill to regulate the counting of electoral votes for President and Vice-President yesterday, without reaching a decision. The House introduced resolutions relative to state rights and secession, but did not succeed in taking decisive action thereon. The bill to provide for the payment of the interest on the 3.65 District bonds was passed.

The Church of the Pilgrims of Brooklyn, (the Rev. Dr. Storrs's) has taken issue with the principles of Congregational polity laid down by the recent advisory council of Plymouth church, and does not feel bound to continue further denominational fellowship with that society. A preamble and resolutions to that effect were introduced at a full meeting last evening.

A. S. Hatch appeared before a Congressional committee the other day and demonstrated that the national credit was so good that its bonds were sought after at rates that would barely pay four per cent., on the investment. The currency six per cents., are free from all complications with the premium on gold. They are selling now at 127, and have an average of nineteen years to run. The buyer gets less than five per cent., per annum on his investment and eventually he loses the 27 per cent. premium. He nets, therefore, less than four per cent. Yet these bonds are in demand at this premium. New five per cents., with five years to run pay four per cent., and sixes of 1881 pay even less. Going over to London we find the '67s, which have no time at all to run, selling at 103; in the same market the sixes of '81 are selling at 109½. At 109 they would pay only four per cent. The new fives in London are worth 106½, with only five years to run. These bonds, if they had even as long as eight years to run, would pay only four per cent at 106½. It is doubtful, therefore, if it is worth while to put the four-and-one-half per cent., bonds on the market.

ABOUT WOMEN.

A Nashua lady reports having made 2555 pies last year.

In the vicinity of Redwood, Minn., there are ten ladies whose aggregate weight is 2220 pounds. The average is a very pretty figure.

A geologist says that he never heard of secondary formations without pleasure—the ladies being the secondary formations, for they were formed after the men.

Call a lady a "chicken," and ten to one she is angry with you. Tell her she is "no chicken," and twenty to one she is more angry still.—[Chicago Tribune.

A fellow in Dortisville, Cal., had a mother who disliked the girl whom he had engaged to marry. Said the mother: "I'll give you the brindle steers and the mule if you don't marry her." He took the brutes in preference to the girl.

The German woman is described as "absolutely contented with her lot," despising the frivolity of the French, the freedom of the English, and the fearless strides and absolute independence of the American woman.

A Danbury couple have a nice little daughter of some five Summers. A lady visitor observed to the mother, "What a pretty child you have! She must be a real comfort to you." "She is, indeed," said the fond mother. "When I'm mad at John, I don't have to speak to him. She calls him to his meals, and tells him to get the coal and other things that I want. She's real handy."

Upon the death of a Danbury woman, who was a chronic borrower, an unfeeling neighbor observed: "She won't be buried there a week before she'll be calling on the other tenants for their flowers."

A case came up for trial in a French court, and as the evidence was expected to be of a certain character, the judge intimated the fact, and requested the decent women to withdraw. Not a soul moved. "Usher," said the judge, "now that the decent women have withdrawn, turn out the rest."

Whilst one American lady is the wife of the German ambassador at St. Petersburg, another is to replace Lady Lytton at Lisbon, Mr. Buckley Mathew, U. S., who is married to a daughter of the late Mr. Gerard, of Gramercy Park, having been appointed to succeed the newly appointed governor-general of India at the Portuguese court.

When the recent panic broke out in the Cincinnati opera house a young lady sprang from a window and safely alighted upon the ground. No sooner, however, had she escaped than she recollected that she had left her muff and opera glasses in her seat. After saving her life by a peril so extreme, she risked it anew, pushed her way again into the opera house and recovered her missing treasures.

A brother FAVAN recently rallied Prof. Tyndall upon the subject of his rumored engagement to a daughter of Hamilton. The great scientist didn't deny the soft impeachment. Encouraged thereby, his friend pursued the subject with the view of discovering what special attraction could have conquered a man who had so long resisted the fascinations of the sex. "Is she prettier than other ladies you have seen?" he asked. No" "Is she wittier?" "No." "Is she more cultivated?" "No." What then is her particular charm?" "She has less dynamic force," said the professor.

Chief Justice Edmund G. Ryan of Wisconsin, in a decision denying the application of Miss Goodell of Janesville for permission to practice, holds that there is no Wisconsin statute which authorizes the admission of females to the bar, and that a contrary construction of the statute would break down all distinctions of sex in the state government. He adds that he is glad of it, for he doesn't think the bar of state courts the proper place for the exercise of a woman's peculiar qualities or for the preservation of her purity.

How to Make a Nice Girl.—First get your girl. (N. B.—She mustn't be an Old Girl, but a young one, nice and tender.) Bring her up from early infancy on a strict diet of hot pickles, cold brandy-and-water, and Ouida's novels. Send her to a fashionable boarding school to be "finished off;" and, when she comes home for the holidays, carefully develop her latent love for dress, extravagant habits and fondness for flirtations. Buy her the Slang Dictionary, and let her go everywhere and do everything she likes. By the time she is 21 she will be quite a Nice Girl.—[Punch.

Celia Logan knows of a Washington young lady, a very excellent manager in point of toilet, who received this Winter, three different invitations to balls. She had but one ball dress, a beautiful white crepe, brought here from China by a sailor brother. Go to these balls in the same dress she would not, and she could not talk papa into buying anything new: so she wore the white crepe to the first ball, and had it dyed pink for the second, had the dye extracted and the dress re-dyed blue for the third, and all for the few dollars her father gave her for gloves, fan, etc. If she received another invitation to a party she says she will have the blue dye taken out and have it white again.

"Never, I confess, was I overtaken by a realizing sense of the awful destruction of life in the late war until I gazed upon the multitude of widows wending their way down the avenue. Nor ever did dawn upon me what frightful mortality there must have been among newly-married heroes until I observed, of the innumerable widows, what a vast number are yet so young—so young that, but that they are war-widows, I'd be sworn they could have scarce grown out of their pinafores at the time of the surrender at Appomattox. But of course, the nation must somehow provide for the bereft young widows of our fallen heroes; and the bewitching creatures are here to to be provided for somehow, I believe.—[Washington Corres.

The most agreeable class of people in Washington at present are the female lobbyists, of whom there must be thirty or more. Some want patents extended; others have war claims, and not a few urge the enactment of private bills. A few of them are handsome, others possess literary pretentions, and nearly all pay great regard to the conventionalities of society. All have tact, some have practical common sense, and those who belong to the class against which Sam Weller warned his father to beware show an intimate acquaintance with the best way of managing the other sex. In no age or country, from the days of Louis XIV. and the court of Spain, as described as Gil Blas, has female influence been more potent than it is just now.

Young man, go to India! It is the custom there for parents to pay men to marry their daughters. In Calcutta, recently, a rich Hindoo paid a man who came from a family of considerable distinction the sum of $200,000 to marry his daughter. The fellow married the young girl, a mere child in years, and pocketed the money. Within two years he had gambled away all this money and was in debt besides. In this strait he sent the girl to her parent's home, demanding $100,000 more as condition of living with her longer. The proposition was indignantly rejected, and the discarded wife now remains at her parental home. It is a stigma upon a Hindoo family if the daughters are not married before arriving at the age of 13.

One of the foreign ministers at Washington was quite concerned one day because of a missive which he had received from a person to him unknown, and which read thus: "The lady correspondent of the —— presents her compliments to the —— minister, and requests an invitation to a ball which she understands he is about to give. She wishes it to be understood that she has no personal desire to be present, but the readers of the —— —— have a right to know what is going on at the metropolis of their country, and it is her duty to inform them. It is to be hoped that the necessary facilities will be granted, and the obligation will be increased by an account of you wife's dress, some detail of which might otherwise be overlooked."

As a rule, women are probably less foolishly extravagant than men, though they have far greater temptations to extravagance. It is a part of a woman's duty to make herself beautiful, and she has no more right to deface her exterior with ugly garments than the tradesman has to paint his advertisements on the rocks of a picturesque landscape. Of course, when money is spent for dress which belongs to creditors, or which is needed for the support of a family, such extravagance is essentially dishonest, but when a woman who is not in abject poverty tries to dress on seven dollars per annum, she deserves to be upbraided as one who perverts the object of her creation, and becomes a stumbling block and a reproach to her sex.—[New York Times.

Mr. Borroughs, of South Africa, having no dog to love, bought an ostrich, and now he advertises as follows: "£10 reward. Lost, tame ostrich. Said ostrich was missing yesterday, directly after having devoured certain pieces of machinery, which one of the ladies of the advertiser's household had spart and was cleaning on the front veranda at the time. He is supposed to have wandered off in a fit of melancholy directly after committing the deed. The above reward will be paid for the return of the pieces, as they are invaluable on account of the long time required to replace from the manufactory in the United States. The parts wanting are a face plate, needle bar and shuttle of a sewing machine. I am not particular about the ostrich."

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—The Atlantic House is fast disappearing.

—There will be a Republican caucus next Monday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Newton have returned from their bridal tour.

—R. B. Smith of Philadelphia, a Summer resident here, is in town.

—There was no criminal business before the justice court this morning.

—The delegates to the Democratic state convention elected Saturday night accept.

—The interior of W. Watt Sherman's Summer residence will be finished about the first of April.

—The brig George arrived here this morning after a long and stormy passage from Mayaguez with a cargo of molasses for New Haven.

—Mary Ann McDonald has sold a lot of land, 99x32 feet on Washington street with the buildings theron, to George B. Hazard for $1150.

—Kate Murray was found considerably intoxicated in Muenchinger's store this morning and was taken to the station house by officer Steel. She has been in town only about a fortnight. Last week she was found very drunk in the cemetery.

—The papers say that Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte, with their family, will spend next Summer at their elegant villa in this city which has been let for some time. They will come about May.

—On Friday the Knights of St. Patrick will ride in carriages and will be preceded by Anthony Stewart's new drag containing 32 young ladies, emblematical of the 32 counties of Ireland. The American and Irish flags will be carried by two boys in the drag. There will be a ball in the evening at the Opera House.

THE ISLAND CEMETERY CORPORATION.—The annual meeting of the Island Cemetery Company was held at the state house last evening. Thirty persons were present, representing sixty lots. William C. Cozzens was elected chairman and Henry C. Stevens secretary. The treasurer's report was read and accepted. The report of the trustees was likewise read and accepted. William C. Cozzens, Alfred Smith and David J. Gould were elected trustees for three years. The other trustees are David King, Henry Bull, J. Alfred Hazard, H. C. Stevens, Joseph M. Hammett and F. B. Peckham, Jr.

THE BERGER FAMILY AND SOL. SMITH RUSSELL.—This troupe gave their second entertainment here last evening to a large audience. One of the prettiest and decidedly the most unique feature on the programme was Miss Josie Maddock's crystal chimes. On cut glass tumblers holding various quantities of water she played popular airs with great success. Mr. Russell's character personations were extremely funny and received immense applause. His imitation of Gough was very artistic piece of mimicry. The orchestra and the cornet band and the bell ringing were all very good. One of best thing of the evening was a solo from Trovatore sung by Miss Anna Morgan who was very justly encored.

SUPPLEMENTARY LECTURE COURSE.—The most fastidious critic can hardly deny that the supplementary lecture course has been a very complete success. There has been but one voice in the community in regard to Mr. Bolles's lecture, Mr. Hegamey's the children's entertainment and the Barnabee concert. The lecture association now propose to close with what may be called a "benefit" for the season ticket holders, since they are practically the gainers by having so much more than was promised them. The concert by the Temple Quartette Thursday night will be preceded by one given by the full First artillery band, which will play from the stage, instead of from the orchestra, and will discourse fine music from seven to eight, P. M. Those holders of reserved seats who wish for the full benefit of the entertainment will have to be in their seats an hour earlier than usual; and those not holding such seats should remember that the pressure for admission will probably be unusually great. The full advertisement will be found elsewhere.

THE LOST CHILD.—The mother of Caroline Hatfield, the little girl whose loss was mentioned in the NEWS yesterday, says that the child went out to play last Friday morning and has not been heard of [since. She is eleven years old and wore an unlined waterproof with the hood over her head. She also wore white striped stockings and shoes considerably worn. Her mother is afraid that she has been accidentally drowned or else abducted. Up to last evening the police had not given the matter serious attention, believing the girl would turn up all right. They are now trying to find out where she is. Last evening the city crier proclaimed her loss, and in the lower part of the city diligent search was made for her. Two years ago she was sent on an errand with a younger sister and lost something that was entrusted to her. Fearing punishment for carelessness she wandered about the city and finally went to the children's home where she gained admittance by representing that she and her sister were homeless. Some time elapsed before it was discovered where the girls were. It is alleged that Caroline is ill-treated at home.

THE ODD FELLOWS WILL NOT BUY THE LAWTON ESTATE.—Rhode Island Lodge, No. 12, I. O. O. F., held a meeting last night to decide whether to buy the Lawton estate or not. Each party was pretty enthusiastic, but perfect harmony and good feeling prevailed. Ernest Goffe spoke in favor of the purchase and presented his side of the question very forcibly. He believed the investment would prove judicious and he wanted the money in the treasury appropriated at once. The proposition to purchase was put to vote and defeated by 52 to 39. The minority are still fully persuaded of the advantage of a real estate investment, and will at once look up some other eligible and profitable site for the erection of a building.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

GALT, COTTON REPORTS THAT THE FAREWELL-STREET SCHOOL HOUSE IS INADEQUATE AND UNFIT FOR USE, AND PLANS FOR A NEW BUILDING ARE CALLED FOR.

The regular monthly meeting of the school committee was held at the usual place last evening, the Hon. Thomas Coggeshall presiding and Thomas H. Clarke being secretary. There were present T. Coggeshall, T. W. Higginson, C. H. Burdick, John H. Cozzens, J. T. Burdick, J. P. Cotton and L. D. Davis.

The records of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Capt. Cotton then presented a report from the committee on the Farewell-street school house as follows:

THE CONDITION OF THE FAREWELL STREET SCHOOL HOUSE.

Thomas Coggeshall, Esq., Chairman of the School Committee, Newport, R. I.

SIR.—The committee who were directed to examine and report upon the condition of the Farewell-street school building submit the following statement:

This building, the second public school building in Newport, was erected in 1853-5; the exact date we did not learn. When first built it was a little more than three fourths its present size with one room on each floor. More rooms being needed a small addition was made on the east end and a stairway built at the southeast corner and each floor divided into two rooms. The dimensions of these rooms are as follows:—

Down stairs—east room 31x 16½.

Up " west " 31x 19½ with recess 6 feet wide from stairs.

Up stairs east room 31x 16½.

The question of what number of cubic feet of air should be supplied for each person is one upon which there has been considerable controversy, and one upon which the authorities do not agree, some giving as much as 15 feet per minute, and one as low as two feet per minute, but generally about six to eight is taken as the quantity requisite to health. In calculating how often the air of the rooms in this building should be changed to keep it free from contamination we have assumed that each person should be supplied with four cubic feet per minute.

The up stairs west room contains 7000 c. ft. 25 desks. 50 scholars.

The down stairs east room contains 5120 c. ft. 21 desks. 45 scholars.

The air of the room containing the least space and greatest number of pupils (down stairs east) should all be changed once in 22 minutes, that of the down stairs west room once in 38 minutes, that in the up stairs west room once in 25 minutes and that in the up stairs east room once in 30 minutes.

To change the air in these rooms as often as this calculation would require, or even in twice the time named, is impossible without incurring even greater danger to the pupils than that of slow poisoning by breathing foul air, for the only means of supplying pure air is by the windows and in these rooms they are so near the pupils that to open them is almost certain to give some delicate child a cold.

In addition to the want of pure air in the rooms there is want of space in the halls and stairways, the arrangment for receiving the light is faulty, but these defects seemed so trivial in view of the impossibility of remedying the greater that your committee gave them little consideration.

The question of what shall be done with these rooms is not a new one, but one that has received careful consideration in previous years by the general committee. Various expedients have been tried to remedy the ventilation, but still the evil continues, and your committee are satisfied that these rooms cannot be made fit rooms for the number of pupils attending and they would recommend that the number of pupils in each room should be limited to the number that can receive the requisite amount of fresh air, or that the use of the building as a school building be condemned.

The crowded condition of our schools, and particularly those of the lower grades, require that early action be taken for the erection of additional school buildings, and your committee think that this building should be condemned and a larger one built in its place. CHARLES H. BURDICK.
J. P. COTTON.

Newport, R. I. March 4th 1875.

The matter was then taken up for discussion. Mr. C. H. Burdick stated that the committee were fully satisfied that the building is so faulty in its construction that the evils set forth cannot be remedied.

Col. Higginson thought the time had fully come when action should be taken on this subject. We certainly cannot consent to the continuance of an arrangement so fatal to our school interests.

Mr. Coggeshall took the same view and had no doubt when the matter is placed before the people there would be great unanimity in correcting the evil. The interests of the schools demand a new building.

J. H. Cozzens suggested that this building is too good to be thrown away and inquired if it could not be utilized by putting a smaller number of pupils in it.

Capt. Cotton thought the town was growing so rapidly in the direction of Broadway that it would be better to build in that section.

The superintendent stated that some families refused to send their children to this school, and yet the pressure is so great that sixty five pupils are now crowded into the worst ventilated room, and he saw no way of relief.

Resolved,—That in the opinion of this committee the farther use of the Farewell-street building for school purposes is not desirable.

Resolved,—That application be made to the city council to take the necessary steps towards the erection of a brick school house to take the place of the Farewell-street and Edward-street school houses.

Resolved,—That with a view to this the building committee be instructed to report at an adjourned meeting the necessary plans for such a school house, with due provision for the removal and continued use of the Edward-street building.

Capt. J. P. Cotton was then added to the building committee in place of W. E. Crandall resigned.

Mr. Clarke the superintendent made his report of the number in attendance which shows a very favorable result. In view of the facts stated in this report it is evident that our schools are not only largely attended but that the interests of the several departments are well sustained throughout.

They tell this story of a Maine greenhorn who recently made a visit to Boston: Seeing a hotel sign, he entered and inquired the price of lodging. "One dollar," said the obliging clerk, handing him a pen and pointing to the register. "What am I do with this here pen?" said the rustic. "Why, put your name on this book," said the clerk, "and I will assign you a room at once. "Not as you knows on," said the young man from Maine; "you don't catch me. My father signed his name once onto a book, sich as those ere patent-right fellows carry around—not nigh so big as that—and he had to pay $1,000. No, sir, e'ee; I kee pay my way, but I don't sign no note, you bet!"

BUSINESS NOTICES.

WONDERFUL SUCCESS!

It is reported that BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP has, since its introduction in the United States, reached the immense sale of 10,000 dozen per year. Over 6,000 Druggists have ordered this Medicine direct from the Factory, at Woodbury N. J., and not one has reported a single failure, but every letter speaks of its astonishing success in curing severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any disease of Throat or Lungs. We advise any person that has any predisposition to weak Lungs, to go to their druggist James H. Taylor, and get this Medicine, or inquire about it. Regular size, 75 cents; sample bottle, 10 cents. Two doses will relieve any case. Don't neglect your cough.

A Genial Restorative.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are emphatically a genial restorative. The changes which this great botanic remedy produces in the disordered organization are always agreeably though surely progressive, never abrupt and violent. On this account it is admirably adapted to persons of delicate constitution and weak nerves, to whom the powerful mineral drugs are positively injurious. That it imitates these processes which result in the re-establishment of healthful vigor is conspicuously shown in cases where it is taken to overcome that fruitful cause of debility, Indigestion, coupled, as it usually is, with biliousness and constipation. Thorough digestion, regular evacuation and abundant secretion are results which promptly and invariably attend its systematic use. It is besides, the best protective against malaria, and a first rate diuretic. mar6-1w-eod

LYON'S KATHAIRON prevents the Hair from falling out or turning gray, renews its growth, and gives strength and vigor. It is delightfully perfumed, and makes a splendid dressing. It is the cheapest and most desirable Hair Tonic ever produced. Used by the ton. Price only 50 cents. aug3-1yr.

THOMPSON'S POMADE OPTIME, for dressing the hair.—This fine pomade merits special attention. Purely vegetable, its effect is to soften and reduce coarse dry hair, imparting to it gloss and beauty. Unlike many preparations for the hair, it cannot injure, but is highly beneficial, equally so, to the rich golden tinted tresses of youth, the darker shades of middle life, or the silver streaked locks of age. 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by druggists.

PRACTICE ECONOMY.—Renovate your soiled gloves thoroughly and quickly, with JOUVENS' INCOMPARABLE KID GLOVE CLEANSER. 25 cents per bottle. Sold by druggists. mar1-codlm-(cow)

Dr. Schenck's Standard Remedies.

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, and SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, and, if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary disease.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the Pulmonic Syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkali of which it is composed, mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and the Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner of SIXTH and ARCH STS., Philadelphia, every Monday.

Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country. mar4-2m-eo

Notices.

AT A MEETING of the Board of Aldermen, held Newport, March 6, 1876, the following resolutions were passed:—

Resolved, That the lists of voters be posted up as the law directs, viz:

FIRST WARD—At the News Depot, Goffe's building, and the store of Thomas T. Carr, Bridge street.

THIRD WARD—At Tilley's News Depot, Thames street, and the store of Arthur B. Mumford, Spring street.

And a full set in the office of the City Clerk of this city, and the Board of Aldermen of this city, will meet according to law, to further correct said lists on the third Monday in March instant, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the City Hall, Newport, and notice to be given thereof on the lists posted, and in the public newspapers.

Attest:
BENJAMIN MARSH, 2d,
mar11-3t City Clerk.

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE,
NEWPORT, R. I., March 6, 1876.

JAMES A. MATTHEWS, having petitioned the Board of Aldermen of this city, for permission to remove his place of business as a liquor dealer from William street, to 161 Thames street, the same was received, and ordered to be published in some newspaper one week at the expense of the petitioner.

Newport Daily News.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1876.

The Cincinnati Times records an incident in the history of one Bridget Mahon of that city, who is a very devout Catholic, and keeps her Friday fast with much scrupulousness. She has a failing for sucking raw eggs, however, which no amount of discipline can overcome. Recently as the family were gathered about the tea table, a terrific scream was heard to issue from the domestic quarters, and the mistress rushed in. "Goodness gracious, Bridget! what is the matter with you?" "Och, holy murther, thin, I jist broked an egg quite by accident, mum, and swallowed it in a hurry, mum, for fear av its bein' lost. An' it had a chicken in it, mum, An' to day's Friday mum. Och, arrone!"

Some of our exchanges are publishing as a curious item a statement to the effect that a horse in Iowa pulled the plug out of the bunghole of a barrel for the purpose of slacking his thirst. We do not see anything extraordinary in the occurrence. Now, if the horse had pulled the barrel out of the bunghole, and slacked his thirst with the plug, or if the barrel had pulled the bunghole out of the plug, and slacked his thirst with the horse, or if the plug had pulled the horse out of the barrel, and slacked his thirst with the bunghole, or if the bunghole had pulled the thirst out of the horse, and slacked the plug with the barrel, or if the barrel had pulled the horse out of the bunghole, and plugged its thirst with the slack, it might be worth while to make some fuss about it.

A Music Lesson.—A Highland piper, having a scholar to teach, disdained to crack his brain with the names of semibreves, minims, crochets and quavers. "Here, Donald," said he, "tak' yer pipes, lad, and gie us a blast. So, verra weel blawn, indeed; but what's a sound, Donald, without sense? You may blaw forever without making a tune o't, if I dinna tell you how the queer things on the paper noun help you. You see that big fellow, wi' a round open face (pointing to a semibreve between two lines of a bar), he moves slowly from that line to this, while ye beat ane wi' your fist and gie a long blast; if, now, ye put a leg to him ye mak' twa of him, and he'll move twice as fast; an' if ye black his face he'll run four times faster than the fellow wi' the white face; but if, after blacking his face, ye'll bend his knee, or tie his leg, he'll hop eight times faster than the white-faced chap I showed you at first. Now, wheno're ye blow your pipes, Donald, remember this,—that the tighter those fellows' legs are tied, the faster they'll run, and the quicker they're sure to dance."

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS,

R. H. EDDY.

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

No. 78 State St., opp. Kilby St., Boston.

AFTER AN EXTENSIVE PRACTICE of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researche made to determine the validity and utility of Patents, of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. EDDY as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents; as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

THE NEW

REMINGTON

Sewing Machine

STILL STANDS

UNRIVALLED.

All competent judges acknowledge it to be the simplest, the easiest, the quietest and the most easily handled of any shuttle machine now in market. It will sew with perfect stitch, from the finest muslin to the heaviest and firmest leaver cloth, or leather, without change of stitch, needle, thread or tension. Its percentage of increase of sales in 1874 was 50¾ per cent and 87½ per cent. more than any other machine. In 1875 its ratio of increase was still greater, being 100 per cent. More than fifteen thousand other machines of first-class make have already been exchanged for it.

No person wishing a sewing machine can do themselves justice, whatever their prejudice, if they fail to examine the New Remington before purchasing. Five dollars a month will buy you a REMINGTON at 35 BROADWAY.

REASONS

WHY YOU SHOULD PREFER TO INSURE

WITH THE OLD

INSURANCE CO. OF NORTH AMERICA.

PHILADELPHIA.

1. It is the Oldest Insurance Company in America,—having commenced business in 1794—and therefore entitled to your confidence on the score of Stability.

2. It has done a successful business for eighty years, thereby demonstrating the ability of its management.

3. It has uniformly maintained during its long career, the Highest Reputation for Integrity and Honorable Dealing, justifying thereby, full faith that your rights will receive fair and liberal protection.

4. It has paid Losses in cash, exceeding Thirty Million Dollars, without the deduction of a cent, or a day's delay—a sufficient evidence of the Wealth of its resources, as well as disposition to meet promptly all liabilities.

5. It has a Cash Capital and Surplus of over $1,700,000, securely invested—an ample GUARANTEE AGAINST DISASTER, in the event of unusual and extraordinary losses, which have often swept away companies of limited means,

6. It insures all the better classes of property on Liberal Terms, for long or short periods, and settles all honest claims for losses, Promptly and Equitably, at the Agency where the Insurance is effected—observing in all its business relations, the Golden Rule.
